

Neighbors. We need each other. We have things to learn from each other. We can and should help keep each other safe and share resources.